

God Called A Meeting

Jeremiah 24:6-7, "for I will set mine eyes upon them for good, and I will bring them again to this land: and I will build them, and not pull them down; and I will plant them, and not pluck them up. And I will give them a heart to know me, that I am the Lord: and they shall be my people, and I will be their God: for they shall return to me with their whole heart."

If God called a meeting would you come? Or would you just say I don't have time? A meeting with God would be a great eye opening experience. Hearts would be opened and lives changed. Yet today many Christians ignore God's invitation. Many say they never got that memo. Many would say they are busy and can't go. Today many people may go to church but miss out on a truly great meeting with the Lord. Yes we may fill our minds and lives with spiritual information and activities; which are good. However, do we ever build a loving heart with a close relationship with the Lord? Maybe its time to take a life inventory and see what you may be missing. Just going to church could only be a duty. If your heart is not filled with God's love what do you miss? Is that just a sense of duty? Do you pray lofty prayers with repetitive words but little or no feeling? Do you seek the Lord's heart or is that only an obligation so people will think you are saintly? Here is a question: If you had a meeting with God like Moses, Paul the woman at the well, Noah or Abraham would that change your mind set? Many today expect a "burning bush" experience and when that doesn't happen they feel like God's not listening. In James 4:8 we see..."Draw near to God and He will draw near to you." So yes God has called a meeting! Did you get the memo? If you did are you coming to the meeting? Can you walk with the Lord or can He walk with you?
